

Megan Baird
Acting Administrator,
U.S. Department of Labor Employment and Training
Administration, Office of Apprenticeship (OA)

Megan Baird serves as the acting administrator in the Office of Apprenticeship (OA) at the U.S. Department of Labor's (DOL) Employment and Training Administration (ETA). In her role, she leads national efforts to expand, strengthen, and modernize Registered Apprenticeship programs, helping employers across industries build high-quality earn and learn pathways that lead to good-paying jobs. As the acting administrator, she has responsibility for oversight and activities related to the National Apprenticeship Act as well as the management of OA staff in the National Office, 6 Regional Offices, and field offices across the country. Under her leadership, OA is dedicated to advancing the president's goal of meeting and surpassing 1 million registered apprentices by leading national initiatives to expand and strengthen Registered Apprenticeship programs.
